

Expert workshop

Policies supporting efficiency and effectiveness of R&I systems

Brussels, 19 September 2013

Policies supporting efficiency and effectiveness of R&I systems

A critical discussant's view

Dr Matthew Allen

Manchester Business School, Manchester, UK

A study on behalf of the European Commission

<Logo>

Key Insights

- Importance of research and innovation from a social and economic perspective
 - Economic growth
 - Social benefits
- Systemic nature of research and innovation
 - Public research institutes and universities
 - Other firms

Areas for Greater Emphasis?

- Firm perspective
 - Firm types
 - Firm strategies
- Nature of innovation
 - Different types of innovation and problems posed by various forms of innovation
- Internationalization
 - Impact and measurement of cross-national flows of capital, labour, knowledge, and organizations
- Broader Issue
 - Distribution of benefits from innovation?